

REFLECTIONS VIDEO TO PREMIERE ONLINE
NOVEMBER 10
Shot on Location at The San Diego Museum of Art

ART of ELAN PRESENTS
REFLECTIONS

A VIDEO PREMIERE EVENT

NOVEMBER 10, 2020 · 7pm

SAN DIEGO MUSEUM OF ART

The 2020-2021 season, aptly titled "Transformations," boasts a full season of concert offerings in partnership with The San Diego Museum of Art. It launches with a concert-length film released to ticket buyers on the night of the previously scheduled November 10 concert, featuring a wide variety of musicians and dancers performing in the empty museum galleries.

"Our desire to build community through music has never felt more important than it does right now. We will continue to innovate and embrace the diversity that has made San Diego such a vibrant cultural ecosystem," explained Hatmaker.

The San Diego Museum of Art: Reflections

Tuesday, November 10, 7pm, Online Video Premiere

Tickets for viewing access: Free for SDMA Members,
$10 non-members, $5 students

TICKET LINK

Art of Elan's 14th season at The San Diego Museum of Art opens with

"Reflections," a thought-provoking cinematic program that explores the bizarre and complex world of twins and multiples as viewed through the lens of documentary photographer Mary Ellen Mark. In a concert-length (1 hour) film to be released online to ticket-buyers and Museum members on November 10, Art of Elan transformed the Museum into a creative playground, activating different galleries with music, dancers, and a variety of unique reflections. Featured artists include Kate Hatmaker on violin, Rose

Lombardo on flute, multi-instrumentalist and singer/composer Theodosia Roussos, marimba virtuosos James Beauton, Fiona Digney and Andrew Watkins, musicians from Bach Collegium, and dancers from Disco Riot. The diverse soundscape takes listeners on a colorful journey beginning with the buoyant sounds of Steve Reich, through the haunting music of Marcos Balter, and concluding with a powerful work by composer/violinist Jessie Montgomery, with other stops along the way. This spell-binding program sets the stage for a season of true transformation.

REFLECTIONS Program

Nagoya Marimbas STEVE REICH

Fiona Digney, percussion
Andy Watkins, percussion

Those Quiet Evenings ALBERT BEHAR

Theodosia Roussos, English horn/voice

Reflections on the Nature of Water JACOB DRUCKMAN

IV. Gently Swelling

V. Profound

VI. Relentless

James Beauton, percussion

Pessoa MARCOS BALTER

Rose Lombardo, Bass flute

Claire Chase, pre-recorded bass flute

Lascia ch'io pianga GEORGE FRIDERIC HANDEL

Anne-Marie Dicce-Valenzuela, voice

Ruben Valenzuela, harpsichord

Alex Greenbaum, cello

Rhapsody No.1 JESSIE MONTGOMERY

Kate Hatmaker, violin

Disco Riot- Zaquia Mahler Salinas, Lauren Christie, Desire Cuizon, dancers

Photos by Gary Payne Photography

More info and tickets at artofelan.org

Find us on Facebook and Instagram

Art of Elan by the Numbers: 2006-2020

- Performed 100 public concerts
 - Showcased 352 musicians
 - Presented 21 world premieres of commissioned works
 - Implemented a highly coveted ensemble-in-residence program
 - Participated in 31 unique, cross-disciplinary and collaborative productions
 - Completed 6 residency programs in National City at A Reason to Survive (ARTS), including 44 world premieres of works by Young Artists in Harmony students.
 - Produced 71 live concert recordings on Instant Encore, which have been streamed over 55,000 times in 28 different countries around the world, thanks to Art of Elan's free music app
 - Established countless new relationships with adventurous music and art lovers of Southern California
-

Pioneering unique events and bringing the excitement of classical music to diverse audiences.

The mission of Art of Elan is to build community through music and enrich the cultural life of San Diego by presenting exciting and exceptional chamber music concerts, simultaneously educating and exposing diverse audiences to classical music through innovative programming, the commissioning of new works, unique performance venues and personal connections.

By drawing inspiration from the word élan, which represents momentum, vigor and spirit, and providing an opportunity to connect directly with concertgoers, Art of Elan hopes to engage and energize audiences in new ways.

Art of Elan concerts are available via download at Instant Encore

MEDIA CONTACT: Toni Robin, tr@trprsandiego.com

public relations | marketing

Toni Robin

TR/PR Public Relations and Marketing
tr@trprsandiego.com
www.trprsandiego.com

858.483.3918